

Element 1: Design and Scope

Your program must be ongoing and comprehensive. It should address all systems of care and management practices. When fully implemented, the program should address clinical care, quality of life, resident choice, and care transitions. You must have a written plan that addresses these principles.